MORPHE 2008 (Section 78) & CHED Memo No.01 S. of 2011 February 15, 2011:
For HEIs adopting a semestral system , 1 academic Year shall consist of not less than 36 wks or 18 wks/semester or its equivalent of normally 6 school days per week. Exclusive of approved vacations and inclusive of legal and special holidays and days of special activities, and class days suspended due to natural or man-made causes. However, CHED will permit the observance of other school holidays/activities provided the minimum number of collegiate school days required for a semester or summer session is strictly observed, and provided further that a minimum of 17 student contact hours including examinations shall comprise a one-unit collegiate academic credit.

- Notes:
1. NDU’s calendar of the first semester and second semesters cover 18 weeks per semester and shall be inclusive of synchronous, asynchronous, online and on-site meetings to satisfy the minimum requirement of 17 student contact hours including examinations, which shall comprise a one-unit collegiate academic credit.
  2. NDU’s calendar of 102 contact days for the semester is of “minimum compliance.”
  3. The proposed Academic Calendar is aimed at moving our calendar alongside our Feeder High Schools as they will move Academic Calendar in compliance with DepEd Calendar.
  4. All legal holidays (national and local) and (tentative) Muslim holidays are already excluded in the counting of contact days.
  5. Formal Academic opening and the ND Festival celebrations are part of the 103 contact days for the first semester.
  6. The Friday schedules will be challenging as to the number of contact hours. Consider the subjects to be placed in the Friday schedule to have at least 51 contact hours.
  7. The Academic Calendar includes the Examination Schedules of the College of Law.
  8. NDU’s calendar for the SPECIAL TERM 2026 covers 18 DAYS WITH THREE- CLASS HOURS FOR THREE WEEKS inclusive of synchronous, asynchronous, online and on-site meetings including examinations to satisfy 54 CONTACT HOURS (51 is the minimum requirement of student contact hours, which shall comprise a one-unit collegiate academic credit)
  9. The Graduate Dean prepares the Graduate School Calendar in reference to this calendar.
  10. Target enrollment for AY 2026-2027 shall be JUNE 3-6, 2026. The start of classes shall be June 8, 2026.

For discussion and approval.
